(Secy)

To J. Payne Collier Esq

At a general meeting of the members of the Royal Shakespearean Club, held at the Town Hall on Monday May 25th Mr Edward Adams in the chair.

It was proposed by Alderman Wendall and seconded by Mr John Archer

"That the best thanks of the meeting be given to Mr J. Payne Collier for his kindness in so readily consenting to preside at the late Shakespearean Festival; for the able manner which he conducted the general proceedings, and the admirable and talented way in which he contributed by his speech to the immortal memory of William Shakespeare."—

Mrs. Law
Secretary.
